Winners and Runners-up of ALL THREE Events at St. Ives

COMPLETE DOMINATION

cippenham teams swept all be fore them at the annual St. Ives Junior Team Tournament during the weekend of 18/19th November, being champions and runners-up in all three age groups.

This is the second year running that Cippenham has won all three events and the Club equalled last year's achievement of the champion teams winning every match 3-0. This time, however, Cippenham completed dominated proceedings in providing the beaten finalists in all competitions and only lost one set all weekend to teams from the rest of the country.

On Saturday the Under-17 event provided a reversal of roles with Cippenham "B" beating Cippenham "A" 3-0 in the final. The "B" team consisted of Thomas Mitchell, Gemma Chapman and Ross Drabble while the "A" team players were Warren Brooks, John Camilleri and David Hayes.

On the same day the Under-12 event was won by Cippenham "A" in the guise of Bradley Evans, James Milton and Sylvana Bielec over a Cippenham "B" team made up of Gavin Evans, Myles Evans and Joe Misseldine.

The triple was attained on Sunday in the Under-14 event when Slough's national Leach Cup champion side of Bradley Evans, Tom Mitchell and David Hayes, playing as Cippenham "A", beat Cippenham "B" 3-0 in the final. The "B" team players were James Milton, Emily Tucker, Gavin Evans and Myles Evans.

Slough Are Bucks Cadet Champions

Slough teams dominated the Bucks Cadet Inter-League held at Cippenham in November. Slough's "A" team, missing only Bradley Evans from its Leach Cupwinning line-up, went completely undefeated all day while Slough "B" were also too strong for the rest of the field.

In Division B Slough "C" came runnersup one place ahead of a High Wycombe "B" team comprised entirely of Cippenham members.

There were good preformances throughout by Cippenham players while some of the less experienced members were introduced to representative play in the Slough "E" team.

Super League Hots Up

The drive for the championship of the Cippenham Super League hotted up during November and there is a definite three-way race for the title.

Bradley In Slovakia

England U12 no. 1, Bradley Evans, along with team-mates from the World Class Performance programme, recently travelled to Bratislava to take part in the Slovakian Cadet Open. Bradley, aged 11, was not expected to win at this stage but was selected to gain valuable European experiance. Bradley soon settled into international table tennis by notching a superb win over Sweden's no. 5 ranked cadet. His performance overall equalled that of the more experienced English cadets and he was unlucky not to beat the Czech no. 1 and the Slovak no. 2. National coach Soren Ahlen was very pleased with Bradley's performance and as a result Bradley has been selected to compete in the Portugese Youth Open to be played in Lisbon during December.

SUCCESS IN REGIONAL TRIALS

Cippenham players dominated the Southern Region Final Trials played at their home club on 26th November, providing all the winners and most of the qualifiers for the National Trials. The home players finished in all the top four places in the junior boys' (U17) event: 1. Bradley Evans (aged 11!); 2. John Camilleri; 3. Warren Brooks; 4. Robert Hansell. Bradley was in commanding form throughout the day winning all of his six matches with only Robert providing any resistance. John lost only to Bradley while Warren lost to both Bradley and John. Cippenham's fifth player of the seven qualifiers, Thomas Mitchell, disappointed with only one win and finished sixth.

It was 1-2-3 for Cippenham in the junior girls with Emma Human on top followed by Emily Tucker and Francesca Parnell. The up-anddown form of Emma prevailed in the ascendancy throughout the competition and she was taken to a deciding game only once. Cippenham's other player, Katherine Tweedy, played well to take three of her opponents to a decider but could not quite clinch a victory. Cippenham's number one, Gemma Chapman, was exempt from this stage of the qualification for what will ultimately be places in the National Masters.

With Bradley Evans exempt, David Hayes finished first in the cadet boys (U14) with James Milton third. Myles Evans (aged 9) finished eighth, winning only one match but had the satisfaction of taking the winner to 21-19 in the third. In the cadet girls the two qualifiers for the National Trials were Emily Tucker and Sylvana Bielec with Caroline Linz finishing third and Eleanor Tweedy sixth.

Girls Lead The Way in National League

Cippenham Girls C finished the first stage of the National Junior League Southern Region in indomitable form, losing only 2 sets out of 48 in the eight matches, all of which were won. The team of Helen Smith, Katherine Tweedy and Sylvana Bielec take a twelve point advantage into the second stage which commences this month. Both Helen and Sylvana boast a 100% record so far and their victories in the second session included a 5-1 success over Bournemouth and 6-0 over IMPACT (Reading), the closest challengers.

The Girls D and E teams finished 4th and 5th respectively while the Boys C and D teams were 3rd and 7th in their section. The top boys' team are nine points off pace-setters Bournemouth A and two away from Chiltern-CHS A. Star of the team on the second date was Gavin Evans who won all of his eight matches. Incredibly, in this U17 competition, Gavin is just seven years old! He is set to follow in older brother Bradley's footsteps. Bradley is already twice an England national champion at U10 and U11 level

Tougher This Time In British League

The Cippenham team in British League Division 1 South had an unsuccessful weekend of 25/26th November. Taking an unbeaten record to Barnet they were unable to further their points tally as they lost three matches to the best three teams in the division. 3-5 reverses were recorded against DML Plymouth and Barnet II while BATTS Team Peniel won their encounter 6-2. Clive Payne was the most successful with 4 wins from 6 matches.
