Gavin marks England debut with astonishing victory

Debut Win for Gavin in Luxembourg

Cippenham's youngest table tennis sensation Gavin Evans marked his full England debut with a stunning victory at the Luxembourg International Youth Championships in June.

The 10 year old, who won the Junior Sportsman of the Year award in March at the Slough Sports Awards, and who also recently won the national under-10, under-11 and under-12 boys' singles titles, gave further indication of his world class potential when he won the mini-boys' (under-13) singles against a strong international field in Luxembourg. England's Performance Director Steen Kyst Hansen was very pleased: "Gavin Evans confirmed his enormous talent and it is good for England's future that we have a younger player able to put pressure on Paul Drinkhall and Darius Knight".

In the preliminary stage Gavin won seven of his eight matches and featured in a three-way tie at the top of Group B. Gavin was placed third after beating Florent Lamoque (Belgium) 3-1 but losing to David Steinle (TT-ARGE Baden-Wurtemberg, Germany) 3-0. He then won his next three matches to finish top of Group X and qualify for a place in the semi-finals. At that stage Gavin demolished Perham Safai (Angby Stockholm) 11-7, 11-7, 11-4 and then defeated Philipp Floerke (TTV Niedersachsen, Germany) in the final 11-9, 8-11, 11-8, 11-7. Gavin is sponsored by Maidenhead company Coverpoint Group.

Cippenham had two other players representing England in the same tournament. Gavin's older brother, Bradley Evans, finished ninth in the cadet boys while Joanna Parker was a creditable third in the junior girls.

Welsh Takeaway

Welsh players won both the titles at the Cippenham Veterans' 2-Star Open. Top seed Steve Hall defeated the highest ranked English competitor, Dave Harvey, 3-0 in the final. The last local player to survive was the Slough veterans' champion Mike Rhodes who succumbed to Hall in the quarter-finals.

Cippenham member and Flackwell Heath resident Mary Heffernan made it through to the Women's Singles final with two close wins in the quarters and semis. The final also went to a fifth game but Mary eventually lost out to Regina Donovan on Wales.

Men's Singles:

Steve Hall (WAL) bt Dave Harvey (Gs) 7, 3, 8

Women's Singles:

Regina Donovan (WAL) bt Mary Heffernan (Bu) 10, -10, -2, 10, 3

Men's Consolation:

Peter Bradley (Bk) bt Geoff Civil (Bk) 3, -4, 14, 3

2002-3

August

Gareth Herbert returns from the Commonwealth Games in Manchester with two gold medals - Men's Team and Men's Doubles.

Cippenham plays host to a exchange visit of deaf players from Saudi Arabia and stages an England v. Saudi international match.

September

Cippenham players dominate the Bucks Junior Trials with the top 8 places in the junior boys' event and at least the top 3 in all others.

Both events at the Southern Region cadet trials are won - by Gavin Evans and Sylvana Bielec.

Joanna Parker makes her full England debut in the Home Internationals.

Melanie Farquhar wins the Cippenham Cadet Open.

October

Alan Farral is presented with the Outstanding Contribution Award - the first member to be honoured twice.

Joanna Parker makes her debut in the European League.

Cippenham stages the ETTA conference "Recruit and Prosper" and is presented with 3rd place in the National Club of the Year contest.

Robert Hansell is the Club's new Duty Officer - from 1st July to end September.

Slough Retain Hammersley Cup

The successful trio : (l-r) Catherine Hayes; Caroline Linz; Sylvana Bielec

Slough retained the Hammersley Cup, the national knock-out competition for under-14 girls' teams, on 22nd June when they beat Hastings 7-2 in the final at Cippenham. The same trio of youngsters, Sylvana Bielec, Caroline Linz and Catherine Hayes that were successful in 2002 were so again to win the 2003 competition.

Sylvana and Caroline both won their three matches while Catherine beat Gemma Davies 3-1 in the final match after having lost out narrowly 11-9 in the fifth to Lisa Standen in the opening game. Hastings' Stacey Furnival also beat Catherine 3-0 and took a game each off Sylvana and Caroline, otherwise it was three-straight all the way for the Slough girls.

Teams based on players from the Cippenham club have now won a massive seventeen national titles in the past eight years, confirming the Club's position at the very top of English table tennis.

Three Gold Medals for Gemma

Gemma Chapman won all her matches in the British Schools' Championships. and returned from Largs, near Glasgow, Scotland, with three winners' medals. Playing in the under-18 age group Gemma steered England to the gold medal position in the girls' team event and then won the girls' singles and doubles titles for herself.

Gemma was not alone on England duty as Cippenham colleagues David Hayes and Marc Armstrong teamed up for England "B" in the under-16 age category. After combining together to take third place in the team event they then also reached the semi-final of the doubles. In the singles event the two Cippenham players clashed in the quarter-final with David winning the day. David then did tremendously well to take Tim Yarnall to a fifth and deciding game in the semi-final.
